Quick Bits of Information

How do you eat the whole Hog? In little Bytes...Here are some things you need to know.

Freedom of Expression in the George Floyd Era

A virtual panel discussion will focus on Freedom of Expression through 3 lenses: The College Campus & Academic Freedom, Freedom of the Press, and Artistic/Musical Expression. Join the expert panelists Monday, March 29 at 7 p.m. Find out more and get the Zoom registration link in Arkansas News.

Save the Date: Take Back the Night, April 22, 7 p.m. Chi Omega Greek Theater

Embrace your voice to assert that all human beings have the right to be free from sexual violence. Join your peers for this powerful and impactful night that brings together community members for one common purpose — to speak out against sexual assault and relationship violence. The 19th annual Take Back the Night event is part of Sexual Assault Awareness Month in April and sponsored by the PWHC Campus Sexual & Relationship Violence Center. For questions, email respect@uark.edu.

You Are Not Alone!

The Campus Sexual & Relationship Violence Center (SRVC) offers a weekly chat group for University of Arkansas student survivors of sexual and/or relationship violence. The confidential Survivors Chat Group meets Thursdays at 5 p.m. via Zoom. Interested survivors should email survivor@uark.edu.
