

HOG Bytes

Quick Bits of Information

How do you eat the whole Hog? In little Bytes...Here are some things you need to know.

First-Generation Senior Photos

Celebrate your upcoming graduation with a free senior photo session just for first-generation students! Bring your cap, gown, regalia, or any props you'd like, and have your photos taken by our photographer on Old Main Lawn, Tue. and Wed., April 8 and 9, from Noon to 4 p.m. Your photos will be available to access later at no cost! In case of inclement weather, photo sessions will be moved to an alternative location. Register for this free event on Hogsync.

Springtime of Youth Concert Event!

Springtime of Youth is a U of A tradition programmed by the Headliners Concert Committee. This year's lineup includes headliner The Driver Era and three other performers. Local bands including Pura Coco, Malibu Moon, and Belladonnas will kick off the event on Sat, Apr 12 from 2:30 to 11 p.m. in Baum Walker Baseball Stadium East Parking Lot. Get your free tickets on HogSync now, and check out @uarkheadliners on Instagram for more information.

The Gold that Unites Us Portrait Gallery Reception

The Multicultural Center invites you to a reception for THE GOLD THAT UNITES US, a gallery of portraits of students, staff, and faculty who belong to Asian, Asian American, or Pacific Islander (AAPI) diasporas, and Southwest Asian and North African (SWANA) diasporas. Come to the reception and check out the amazing photos on Thur., April 10 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. in the Multicultural Center on the 4th floor of the Arkansas Union.

Pre-Screening of 2 Mark D. Williams' New Documentary Films

The Multicultural Center, Native American Student Services, Native American Student Association (NASA), and the Native and Indigenous Employee Impact Group invite you to a screening of Mark D. Williams' new documentary films "Lady Red Warriors" and "Carly Buckets." Come watch the films and the Q&A with Williams and Razorbacks Women's Basketball player, Carly Keats. A reception to follow with autographed posters. Free tickets are required for this event in Hillside Auditorium Room 206 on Fri., April 11 from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Mini-Bytes

Seniors graduating this Spring apply now for the Henry Woods Student Leadership Award from the Division of Student Affairs. Applications are open on HogSync from April 7 through April 28. (Will include link to application when it opens Monday before sending this out)

Join UARK Wellness and Peer Wellness Coaches and grab a mocktail with a therapist! If you have any burning questions about therapy, mental health, or just want to chat with a therapist that's not YOUR therapist, come and join the party on Mon., April 7 from 1 to 2 p.m. in the Wellness Lounge HLTH 2132.

Comedy Open Mic Night ft. Claire Scott! All Experience levels welcome. Bring your best jokes and get ready to laugh. Wed., April 9 from 5 to 6 p.m. in Hill Coffee in the Arkansas Union.

Come make your own masquerade mask in preparation for PRIDE prom! Supplies will be provided, but feel free to bring your own on Thu., April 10 from 5 to 8 p.m. in Kimpel Room 209

Registration for the ACE Personal Training Prep Course is officially open for Summer 2025. This prep course, which costs $50 and is 100% virtual, consists of practical programming and training for the American Council on Exercise Personal Training Certification. Register in the UREC Member Portal.

The last day to drop a full semester class or classes with a "w" is Fri., April 18. No full semester class or classes may be dropped after this date unless the student officially withdraws from all classes that have not yet been completed. Check the Registrar's website for more important dates.
